

Connected by Spirit

Connected by Spirit, the people of Christ are parts of one body—one Body, alive.
Now some parts seem evident, like hands and feet,
but so many others help make it complete.

Some parts bring in nourishment; some build it strong.
Some add to perception; some move it along.
Our gifts are each different, but may we find
well-being and beauty as gifts are combined.

Oh... when the Body dances!
Oh..., when a baby crawls!
Oh..., when five loaves, two fishes—
raised to God—feed all!

Christ's body, this Body, it still acts today.
In tune with the Father, as Christ was—it prays.
As Christ did, it travels to heal and to teach,
and welcome those people who've felt beyond reach.

Oh..., then the Body dances!
Oh..., then the baby crawls!
Oh..., then five loaves, two fishes—
raised to God—feed all!

Text and bridge music: Constance Morgenstern, ©2018 WordSown.com Suggested tune for verses: ST. DENIO, traditional Welsh tune
May be copied for noncommercial use.