*The "guitar" accompaniment is written out as both notes and annotated chords. This allows the part to be approximated with a keyboard (an octave down), as well as to suggest textures for a guitarist. For example, it might be effective to pluck stark notes from the beginning until m. 13. Other textures include plucking with thumb and three fingers, rolling, strumming, or arpeggiating chords. Consider how to support the story.

Copyright and Licensing Information

Please enjoy your one free copy of this song as a sample or for your personal music collection.

It is illegal to copy this music. To make enough copies for a group, send a licensing payment with the agreement on the next page. (However, if you're using only 3 or 4 musicians, they could each download their own free copies and perform the song in church for no charge.)

Our license also gives you permission to include the song in recordings of church services, if your church routinely makes a few recordings for archiving or for shut-ins.

Before making your copies, fill in the "License Line" at the bottom of the first page of the music.

To get permission for other uses of this song, email us. This would be needed, for example, if you wanted to perform this song beyond church services, to make a recording for wider distribution, etc. Permission may or may not involve payment, but you do need to contact us. No other licensing organization covers our material.
