

One Early Morning on a Shore

a hymn/song based on John 21:1-19, with piano

Text and arrangement by Constance Morgenstern

lyrically, ♩ = ca. 72

sl. rit. mf

One ear-ly

Possible intro.

mf

sl. rit.

ped.

7

morn - ing on a shore, you called your friends to break-fast, Lord. You brought the 7

sl. rit. rit.

11

fire, the fish, the bread. You stood on shore, back from the dead. Your friends had 11

sl. rit. rit.

Text and arrangement ©2016, 2022 WordSown.com

Tune: O WALY WALY, English folk tune

This music may be freely copied and performed for noncommercial purposes.

For other uses, check our copyright policy at WordSown.com.

One Early Morning on a Shore

16

caught no fish that night. Un-known, you hailed, "Cast to the right!" Fish then a - 20

sl. accel. sl. rit.

bound - ed; nets near tore— Yet Pe - ter dove to greet you, Lord!

*sl. accel. sl. rit.

24

You brought to him for-give-ness, love, and fresh com - mis - sion from a - bove: Three times you

more deliberately

*Some of the tempo modifications may need to be lessened or omitted for use with a congregation.

One Early Morning on a Shore

29 subito p mf broadly

asked, "Do you love me?"; three times di - rect - ed, "Feed my sheep." With last - ing grace, now as be - fore, you come to feed us, to re - store... And we keep,

34

38 rit. n.b. pp

too, this vi - sion, Lord, of you in wel - come on that shore.